Action Taken Report on Curriculum Feedback 2019-2020

The Action Taken Report (ATR) at the International School of Management Excellence (ISME) serves as a vital summary of measures taken in response to feedback from various stakeholders such as students, faculty, alumni, and parents. It plays a pivotal role in refining ISME's curriculum and overall educational experience. The report, prepared by the Faculty Advisory Committee (FAS), brings to light key themes identified from feedback and delineates specific actions undertaken by the school administration or curriculum team. These actions encompass a spectrum of initiatives, ranging from curriculum enhancements and adjustments in teaching methodologies to bolstering student support services and upgrading facilities. Moreover, the report delineates plans for continuous monitoring to ascertain the efficacy of implemented measures. Ultimately, the ATR underscores ISME's unwavering dedication to continually elevate its educational offerings in alignment with stakeholder perspectives and needs.
